GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Chicago, March 31.—Trade in the wheat pit early in the session to-day was of decidedly smaller volumes, but the tone of the market was firm. Small receipted here and in the northwest and a bullish estimate of the amount of wheat to be exported from Argentina this week were the principal strengthening influences. One of the leading bulls gave the market moderate support at the start. Prices at the preprincipal strengthening influences. the opening were a shade lower to 1-20 higher, compared with the previous close. initial quotations on May being at 1.18 3-8 to 1-2c, and July at 1.06@3-8c. For a time May held within the opening range, but July, after touching 1.06 3-8, dropped back to 1.061-8. Buying by shorts based on a slight improvement in spring demand from the cash grain caused a firm tone in the corn market. Prices at the start were a shade to 3-8c higher, with May at 667-8 to 671-8c. Later May sold at 471-841-4c. receipts of live hogs, than had been fore-casted. At the opening prices were unchanged to 21-2c higher.
